Seams – it is preferable that seams be ironed open than overlapped together, however, if an entrant chooses to overlock the seams together and it does not alter the line and fall of the seam

NO PENALTY for doing this will be made.

Hems – it is preferable these be put up by hand, however, hems can be machine sewn using a blind hemming foot or turned up and stitched by machine. The method of hemming will be determined by the fabric and style of the garment. If the entrant is doing a rolled hem on fine fabrics it is allowable. If using stretch fabric, the hems can be machine sewn.

Notions – buttons, zips, studs, cottons etc are classed as notions. Beware you don't need to buy large reels of cotton, you probably will not use it all on this garment/outfit.

Tacking, gathering stitches and marker pens – remember to remove all tacking and gathering stitching and remove any markers prior to finishing off.

6. USE OF IRON

Quality use of the iron should be evident throughout the sewing process.

7. STRETCH KNIT FABRIC

A fine zig-zag stitch may be used to allow the seam to give with the fabric. Use a ball point needle with this fabric. On some machines there is a special stitch for stretch fabrics, it is allowable to use this also.

8. JUDGES & STEWARDS

Please ensure that your judge or judges have a copy of these guidelines, judging sheet and schedule. It is also important that the person or persons appointed to be Stewards, clearly understand the requirement of the contest so that should any problems arise they can be quickly resolved.

To avoid any conflict of interest, perceived or otherwise, it would be best if the steward was not an entrant in the competition.

Please also ensure you have a gift of appreciation to give to your guests at the end of judging.

The decision of the Judge is final – see QCWA State Contest / Competition State By-laws.

Please remember that the Judging guidelines are only to be used as a guide. It is up to the Judge or Judges how they wish to interpret these.
